Alex. Woolcott Was About To Take Up Cudgels For Local Issue

The sudden death of Alexander Woolcott in New York last Saturday night was not only a loss of national significance, but it was also a definite setback to the effort of this neighborhood, which has never ceased, to overcome the crass official decision which thwarted, at least pro-tem, the formal recognition due the Negro Bland for his notable contributions to American folk-love and music.

It will be remembered that in 1939 it came to light that the body of the composer of "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," "Oh, Dem Golden Slippers," "In The Evening By The Moonlight," and 700 other songs and ballads was interred in an unmarked grave in the old Merion Cemetery.

As a result of the discovery, a group composed of Lower Merion and Narberth residents immediately organized to provide a more appropriate and inspiring resting place for an artist whose works were of world-wide renown. The fortuitous local circumstances of James Bland's death and burial were readily accepted as imposing a community accountability which could not be shirked by those aware of what it was that made up a great nationhood and of the justice due those of all colors and creeds who had contributed effectively to America's permanent progress and well-being.

No different than is ordinarily the case, the substantial sum needed was forthwith available, up to $25,000, and in similar spirit all the other essentials of the enterprise were to be provided without cost. The late Frank Schrepfer, for instance, was to landscape the proposed site as only he could do it; Roland Flier volunteered for the numerous legal aspects, while others did the leg-work around Philadelphia, New York and Washington in order to bring the bibliography up to date and to coordinate the various details which were involved.

The decision was to remove the body from the cemetery and to reinter it on a hillside hard by, a natural setting which lent itself admirably to the superb scheme of adornment which Frank Schrepfer had drafted. Then, in authentic artistry, there was to be erected a symbol of Minstrelsy, the sculptor to be a man of Bland's own race. Thus there would be consummated the tribute which had been so long neglected in behalf of the greatest troubadour who ever lived; for Bland was all of that and not even Stephen Foster could vie with him in expressing the deep and plaintive moods which bewildered the Negro in the alien land where he had been delivered in shackles and where only the feeblest kind of effort has been continued to recognize his dignity as a human being and of the equality he shares with his white brethren before God.

Tax Collectors to Be At Pennsylvania Co. To Aid Taxpayers

Three deputy tax collectors will be at the Ardmore Branch of the Pennsylvania Company, 7 E. Lancaster av., Ardmore, on February 23, 24, 25 and 26 and on March 1 and 2 for the purpose of assisting taxpayers in the preparation of their returns, as well as to accept tax payments.

It is expected that there will be a great many more taxpayers this year, and as it is likely that the tax collectors will be especially busy on March 1 and 2, bank officials urge that as many persons as possible call to see the collectors during the February period.

Cycling Nells To Give Out OPA Rationing News

More than 150 women cyclists of the Main Line, members of the suburban Bicycle Corps of the Navy League Service, will serve as modern "Pauline Reverses on bikes" to aid local OPA rationing boards in the present transportation emergency.

The cycling "Nells," under the direction of Mrs. Richard S. Chew of Bala-Cynwyd, will distribute all OPA literature on rationing throughout the suburban area.

Mrs. Chew offered the facilities of the Bicycle Corps of which she is chief, when she learned of this critical transportation situation. The "Nells" will cover Bala-Cynwyd, Merion, Narberth, Penn Valley and surrounding localities.

150 members of the Bicycle Corps of the Narberth-Penn Valley Branch of the Navy League Service will meet Jan. 23 at 11 A. M. at the Narberth-Penn Valley Branch Headquarters, Narberth and Haverford av., for their instructions on distributing OPA rationing literature.

They will carry literature to all local meat dealers, restaurants and drug stores. As other pamphlets are ready, they will distribute them on bicycles to help save gasoline and tires.

When the Navy League Service indicated it was ready to spring into action, it was named official distributing agency for the OPA.

In addition to the Bicycle Corps, Navy League members of the Narberth-Penn Valley Branch will cover the balance of the township, including Haverford, Bryn Mawr, Ardmore and Wynnewood.

P. T. A. Has 292 Paid-Up Members

Church Federation Elects Officers

Report More Boys and Girls Seeking Guidance

An increase in the number of adolescent boys and girls seeking guidance was reported at the annual organization meeting of the Main Line Federation of Churches last week.

Miss Alice H. Ambler, executive secretary, said that many of these boys and girls had been in trouble with the police and the Juvenile Court.

The following officers were elected:

The Rev. Roger G. Stimson, president; the Rev. Bert L. Scott, vice-president; the Rev. Frederick Seymour, vice-president; S. Edgar Downs, treasurer; Curtis L. Clay, secretary.

More than 100 persons attended the meeting which was held Monday night at the Ardmore Presbyterian Church.

Miss Ambler said that the Federation was revising an old service of helping people with their household budgets, and nutritional problems and wise food buying. Government charts showing food values could be seen at the Federation's office, she said.

Dr. Earl D. Bond, the speaker, said that we had responsibilities towards all peoples in all parts of the world.

Ask Public To Avoid Needless Visits As Doctor Shortage Becomes Acute

OPA To Take Eight Coupons For Violation Of Gas Regulation

Montgomery County War Price and Rationing Board No. 3 held its first hearings on violations of the pleasure-driving regulation last Friday night at the Lower Merion Township building, Ardmore.

Four cases were heard and three were discharged.

The fourth case concerned Hamilton C. Ellis, 233 Marlborough rd., Ardmore, who failed to appear for the hearing. His license number was taken on January 8 in Oakmont.

The Board notified Ellis by letter after the hearing that he must appear before Friday of this week and turn in his "A" gas ration book from which they would take eight coupons unless he asked for a hearing and gave satisfactory reasons why he did not appear at the hearing on Friday.

All members of the board were present for the hearings. They are William E. Kamerdze, chairman; H. H. Elliott, Henry Harman, C. A. Penney and Mrs. Benjamin Z. Strawbridge.

Clubwomen Will Sell War Bonds

Members Will Man Booth On Haverford Avenue Daily

The Women's Community Club of Narberth will man the War Bond booth at Haverford and Forrest avs., Narberth, in cooperation with Mrs. Francis Small, chairman of the Emergency Aid Main Line War Bond and Stamp Committee, it was announced this week.

Mrs. L. V. Homsher is in charge of the booth and will organize shifts to keep the booth open from 9:30 a. m. to 5 p. m. daily.

The dessert bridge, scheduled by the Project Committee, Mrs. J. H. Miller, chairman, for February 11, has been postponed until the 18th because the Red Cross Mobile Blood Donors Unit is to be in Narberth on February 11.

At the next meeting of the club, on February 2, Mrs. R. G. Bennett, Drama Committee chairman, will present three monodramas, and a violin recital by Miss Anne Bickford, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. M. L. Bickford, scheduled for January 19, will also be given at this meeting.

Mrs. L. G. Crater, president of the club, has appointed Mrs. J. H. Miller to head the local committee to recruit WAAC members in cooperation with Colonel Fred Schoenfeld, commanding officer in charge of recruiting in the Philadelphia area.

Friend Of Niemoeller Speaks Here Sunday

In Berlin, before his arrest by the Nazis, Dr. Stein was a judge, lecturer on law and an author.

Night Calls Discouraged For Minor Complaints; Caution Citizens To Care For Common Colds; Many Physicians Called To Service

Speaker Outlines Rotary Principles

Philadelphia Officer Addresses Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Club

Walter J. Schot, second vice-president of the Philadelphia Rotary Club, addressed members of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club at their weekly luncheon meeting on Tuesday.

Introduced by Alvin Shull, Schot discussed "Rotary Education and Rotary Information" and outlined the principles of Rotary as club service, vocational service, community service and international service. He referred to the Rotary mottoes, "Service above Self" and "He profits most who serves best," and pointed out that membership in Rotary does not necessarily make a Rotarian, but that a true Rotarian is one who actually lives up to the mottoes and principles of the organization.

To illustrate the service record of Rotarians throughout the United States, he gave the following statistics:

Nine hundred and seventy Rotarians head local defense councils; 6901 serve local councils as staff officers; 21,295 have taken courses recommended by the OGD; 4059 have donated to local blood banks; 4753 have left their regular vocations for full time war work; 3674 have been guest speakers at organization meetings to give information on the war effort; 894 clubs have offered corporate service and manpower to local defense councils and 290 clubs sponsor public meetings to educate the public on various phases of the war effort.

Dwindling Supplies, Help Shortage Results In New Milk Control Rules

Steps that are necessary to maintain sanitary and health standards in the face of dwindling dairy supplies were outlined in the 21st annual report of Dr. George W. Grim, milk control officer for this section.

Dr. Grim also predicted that milk deliveries might be cut to every other day. In the future, he said, they might be eliminated entirely except at homes where there was sickness or maternal care was being administered.

The milk district for which Dr. Grim reports includes Narberth Borough and Haverford and Lower Merion Townships.

Retirement of two dealers during the past year was reported by the milk control officer. One handled pasteurized milk and one manufactured ice cream.

In his report Dr. Grim pointed to numerous war-time complications that were making control of milk and dairy supplies more difficult.

Heavy cream, he said, had disappeared from the market because of scarcity of dairy products and the drain of manpower from the industry.

One of the most drastic measures is the recommendation made by the District's milk control committee to the Philadelphia Milk Commission that "certification of milk for the immediate future be conditioned upon pasteurization, in addition to enforcing the existing production standards."

This would effect certified milk brands.

"Most of the milk in this class," he said, "is sold in the raw state and hence is not provided with the protection afforded by pasteurization."

In discussing the pasteurized milk supply, which makes up the great bulk of deliveries, he said:

"The need for critical materials

Cooperation in minor complaints, they said, will preserve the physicians' physical energy and conserve valuable rubber and gasoline.

They pointed out that their ranks had been thinned because many physicians are now with the armed forces.

"This has created conditions," the Society's spokesman pointed out, "which are requiring additional services above normal for those physicians at home."

On four points they asked the cooperation of the public:

(1) That the public pay special attention to minor complaints, such as the so-called "common cold," etc., and thereby help prevent serious illnesses with additional necessity of physicians, hospitalization, etc.

(2) When the services of a physician are needed, do not delay and call him at various hours of the day. Call your physician in his morning office hour. This will permit of the best service to all. A physician cannot retrace his course without unnecessary loss of time. In addition, this will also help to conserve the vital materials of rubber and gasoline.

(3) Please do not expect a physician to make calls in the evening or at night for minor complaints, or simply to benefit the convenience of a person. Physicians with their long hours of required duty, are physically unable to meet unnecessary demands and at the same time fulfill their heavy duties continuously.

(4) If your physician has been called to the service, make it your duty to ascertain the office hours of the physician to whom he has referred you, in order that the best cooperation can be obtained.

Louis A. Young Undergoes Operation

INFORMATION ON PROPER CARE OF RAYON STOCKINGS

With nylon stockings due to fade out of the picture, rayon and cotton hose become of prime importance to the consumer. In order to get full value for her stocking dollar, the consumer needs to know how to buy wisely.

The necessity for consumers to care properly for rayons—especially to allow ample time for drying must be emphasized. We have learned to designate the weight of stockings by threads. Now we must learn a new term—denier. Denier refers to the thickness of the thread used in knitting the stocking. The finer the denier, the sheerer the hose.

A fifty denier corresponds to a three and four thread silk. A seventy-five denier rayon corresponds to a five and six thread silk and a one hundred denier corresponds to a seven thread silk.

Another point that needs to be stressed is the selection of the proper denier for the use intended to be made of the hose. Do not subject sheer rayon to hard wear for which they never were intended.

In washing, allow from 24 to 48 hours for drying, depending on the weight of the hose. Wash after every wearing in lukewarm suds, made from mild soap. Be sure to handle carefully when wet and do not stretch or pull. Dry away from heat and sunlight.

Always remember that moisture weakens any rayon fiber until it is thoroughly dried.

Be a good consumer—take care of what we have.

INCOME TAX INFORMATION

Credit for Dependents

A taxpayer is entitled to a credit for each person other than husband or wife, whether related to him or not, and whether living with him or not, who during the taxable year was dependent upon and received his chief support from the taxpayer, provided the dependent was either (a) under 18 years of age, or (b) incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective.

The credit for dependents is based upon actual financial dependency and not mere legal dependency. It is not necessary that the dependent be related to the taxpayer, but the taxpayer must have provided more than one-half of the support, or there is no dependency.

The term "mentally or physically defective" includes not only those who are mentally afflicted and physically crippled, but also persons who, by reason of old age or impaired health, are incapable of self-support. The state of mental or physical defect need not be of a permanent nature, but if it existed for only a portion of the year, then the credit for dependent can be claimed only for that portion of the year during which the dependent was supported by the taxpayer.

A person may not acquire a credit for dependent by reason of support of a person qualifying as a dependent if, as a result of such support, he acquires a head of family exemption, but may acquire a credit for dependent by reason of additional persons qualifying as dependents, whom he supports. Thus, if a person claims head of a family exemption on account of support of an aged mother or father, incapable of self-support or a child, he would not be entitled to a credit for such dependent; but if he supported more than one person he could claim credit for such additional persons provided they were under 18 years of age or incapable of self-support.

Credit for dependents may not be divided between two persons filing separate returns, but must be taken by the one contributing the chief support. A credit for dependents may be claimed by a father who provides the support for his children living with his divorced wife, if the support is provided as a result of a court decree or as the result of an agreement between husband and wife.

The credit for dependent, allowable to a taxpayer filing on Form 1040, is $350, and is proportionate with the number of months of dependency. Thus, for a child born on July 1, the credit allowable would be $175 (for six months), and if a child became 18 years of age on July 1 the credit allowable would be $175. One-half a month or less is not counted as a month; more than one-half a month is counted as a month in calculating the credit.

L. M. Patrolman Struck By Auto

Chidester Run Down As He Directed Traffic After Earlier Mishap

John J. Chidester, 35, 175 School av., West Manayunk, who has been on the Lower Merion force three months, was struck by a car driven by Isidore C. Golab, 27, Argyle Court Apts., Ardmore, and is in Bryn Mawr Hospital with possible fractures of the pelvis and vertebra and a severe concussion of the brain.

Chidester was directing traffic on Lancaster av., near Bowman av., Wynnewood, after a large truck and trailer skidded on Three Sisters Hill, west of City Line av., and came to a halt across the pike.

Golab, traveling east on Lancaster av., apparently did not see the patrolman until it was too late to stop on the icy pavement. He was released on his own recognizance for a further hearing, on charges of assault and battery by automobile, pending the outcome of Chidester's injuries.

Dwindling Supplies

Further burdens. Transportation problems have reduced delivery service and inconvenienced consumers. Delays in deliveries have required more attention to proper cooling and refrigeration of milk during delivery.

Referring to the supply in general, he pointed out that acute shortages in both milk and cream have occurred during the year, necessitating milk and ice cream dealers applying to the boards of health for additional sources of supply.

Dr. Grim, however, said: "Requests for permission to obtain emergency supplies of milk for household use have not been granted. It is believed that sufficient inspected supplies are obtainable although some difficulties in their procurement have been reported."

Speaking of the ice cream supply, Dr. Grim said that rationing of raw materials had required a material reduction in the volume of ice cream manufactured.

"Many of the troublesome fancy novelties have disappeared from the market," he said.

Also, Dr. Grim frowns upon the new butter mixtures because of sanitary reasons.

"A substantial portion of the local butter supply," he said, "is printed and wrapped at the creamery, thus reducing to a minimum the possibility of contamination through re-handling. The sale of whipped or re-worked butter has been discouraged."

LETTERS FROM OUR MEN IN SERVICE

To the Editor—

Dear Sir:

"Our Town" has been reaching me ever since I have been in the Army. This is very nice, as it is the only news I receive of the happenings in Narberth, and it is certainly always cheerful.

FRANCIS CONTINO.

I want you all to know how terribly thrilled and appreciative I was to receive the wonderful Christmas box from all of you at home. Judging from every article in the box, I am sure a great deal of time and thought were put into filling it, because I had an immediate use for everything.

To let you know, as an example, how much others also enjoyed the things four of us have been looking hard for a small chess set for two months, but without success. When I opened Narberth's very choice leather chess-and-checker combination, glad shouts were heard all over the barracks. It has brought us all many pleasant moments of relaxation.

With the willing and the helpful support that you are all giving us at home, we can expect, rightfully, that 1943 will bring peace nearer to all of us, and a bright future. Thank you again for your grand present.

THORNDIKE WILLIAMS

Letters To The Editor . . .

January 21, 1943
To the Editor of Our Town:

I am not writing to complain about being unable to drive my car for pleasure. I am glad to make this small sacrifice for our boys, but it does make one boil when she sees ladies coming home from an afternoon of pleasure and slip out of their friend's car at a walking distance from their home so as to be unseen by their neighbors. If these ladies had boys of their own in the Pacific, as I have, I am sure they would not resort to such unpatriotic methods.

I would appreciate if you would print this. I would like these Narberth ladies to know how I feel.

No Epidemic of Measles Expected
Lower Merion Taking Extra Precautions to Prevent Spread

Forty-one new cases of measles in Lower Merion Township this week brought the total number of cases of this disease to 102 since January 1.

Compared to last year, when only two cases occurred in the first three weeks of January, this is a large increase, but according to Robert L. Thomas, township health officer, the disease has not reached epidemic proportions here as yet.

Unique control measures practiced in Lower Merion, which exceed the requirements of the State Department of Health, are thought by Thomas to be partially responsible for the fact that the measles are not spreading here as fast as in other sections. This control requires that all susceptible household contacts, that is, children of school age who have been in close contact with a child who has come down with measles, must be quarantined for the incubation period of one week, from the seventh to the 14th day. Adults are not required to be quarantined.

State regulations do not require that household contacts shall be quarantined.

"The fact that the measles cases already reported," states Health Officer Thomas, "are not confined to any one area of the township but are pretty generally scattered probably means that more cases are to be expected, though it is doubtful if it will reach epidemic proportions here." There is no plan to close the schools, he asserted.

The quarantine for those contracting the disease is a minimum of ten days and the quarantine is lifted at the end of that time only upon certification by the physician that the child has completely recovered.

The last time there was any real epidemic of measles in Lower Merion was in 1934, when 1160 cases were reported during the year.

The total for 1938 was 741; for 1940, 509; for 1941, 600; and last year only 49 cases appeared during the entire year.

Other cases of contagious disease reported in Lower Merion during the week ending January 22 are five chicken pox, eight German measles, six mumps and seven whooping cough.

HOW TO BUY MEAT

When meat rationing comes, don't hold out for your favorite cuts. There may not be enough to go around. There are more than 250 retail cuts of beef, pork, lamb, veal and their by-products to choose from. All have approximately the same food value and that's what counts in keeping the health of the family up to par.

Button,
Button...

It happened one night in a big hotel which had been taken over by the Air Corps. Major C. P. M. had lost a button off his cuff. Now the Major can hit a building with a bomb at 10,000 feet, but he can't thread needles worth a nickel!

Fortunately, help was not far away. Down to the switchboard operator went the Major. Into the needle went the thread and the button was soon on the cuff.

"Thank you, Miss," said the Major.

One way we can all help the Army is by buying War Bonds. Another way is this: keep your telephone calls to the minimum. Make fewer calls. Keep them brief! Give vital war calls a clear track and a green light all the time. The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania.

Miss Kelley told how government regulations will affect the clothing trade and said, "When buying clothes nowadays, it is important to relate each garment to the rest of your wardrobe, because now we are not buying for the moment."

HAVERFORD TOWNSHIP NEWS

For years the fans here and in the city have argued over the strength and relative merit of the leading teams in the four major scholastic conferences in the Philadelphia district. There have been dreams of the four champions meeting to decide the metropolitan king, but that's all they've ever amounted to.

Of course, a city champion is crowned when the winners of the Public Conference and the Catholic League meet at the end of each season. But it has always been believed this title would mean more if, by some manner, the Interacademic League and Suburban Conference representatives were included.

However, due to the P.I.A.A. tournament, which takes all the attention of the top suburban teams, and the Interacademic League rule against post-season games, no effort has ever been made to get the four teams together.

But there is a war on now and things are not what they once were. Thus, it may not be surprising that there is a movement on foot at the moment to have the leaders of the four major school leagues meet in a series of games for the War Fund.

TAYLOR'S SUGGESTION
Sam Taylor, coach of Penn Charter's undefeated team, made the suggestion last week and so far Bill Anderson, famous tutor of Lower Merion's crack five, and Ben Stackowski, coach of the West Philadelphia High team which currently is sharing first place with Bartram in the Public League, have approved the idea.

The difficulty lies in finding dates that won't conflict with the schedules of the four teams. Whether this can be worked out satisfactorily remains to be seen. If the idea is to become a reality the games will have to be scheduled sometime before the last week of February, as at that time the Public League playoffs get under way and the Catholic League and P. I. A. A. playoffs start the following week.

It is reported the coaches of the leading teams expect to get together within the next week to determine what can be done, if anything. It is to be hoped that they can come to a quick agreement. The games are what the fans have been clamoring for for years and they certainly would be sufficiently attractive to draw quite a nice sum for the War Fund, which is what really counts.

BACK ON TOP
WEEK IN REVIEW Pottstown is back in the driver's seat in Section Three of the Suburban Conference after several years in the shadows. . . . The dominating figure in the league until Coatesville scaled the heights two years ago, Pottstown came back into its own by handing Coatesville its first league defeat, 32-30, Tuesday night. . . . The Trojans, who have won four straight, now hold undisputed possession of first place. . . . Chester, undefeated leader of Section Two, defeated Ridley Township, Section Four pacesetter, 30-25, in a preview of a likely P.I.A.A. play-off game. . . . Bridgeport has taken first place in Section Six.

Penn ran its winning streak to seven in a row by routing Yale, 42-30, last Saturday. . . . Larry Davis and Chuck Viguers, former Lower Merion stars, were outstanding with 13 and 10 points, respectively. . . . As a result of Penn dropping the freshman rule, Bill Koehler, another L. M. alumnus, probably will be on the varsity in a couple more weeks. . . . Koehler has been the star of the Red and Blue freshman team. . . . Penn, which entertains Army this week-end, gets its big test in the league when it goes to Columbia and Cornell next week-end.

BROOKLYN VS. WILDCATS
Villanova returns to action on the home court next Thursday when it entertains Brooklyn College. . . . St. Joseph's plays West Texas State, billed as the world's largest court team, and Temple encounters Syracuse in this Saturday's Convention Hall doubleheader. . . . Nothing new at the moment on the proposed post-season city collegiate tournament.

Bill Dougherty, former Bristol and Jenkintown High coach, has succeeded Roy Randall as basketball and baseball coach at Haverford College. . . . Randall has been commissioned a lieutenant in the Marines and reported for duty this week. . . . Dougherty, who also coaches at Upper Darby Junior High, will make his debut here when Haverford opposes Drexel February 4.

Bill Rose of Llanerch won the Palumbo trophy, emblematic of the individual match game bowling championship of the Philadelphia district last week. . . . Rose won the crown by only one point over Ed Winchester, 1941 champ.

Hand Over Your Card Deck to the Nearest Policeman

Haverford and Lower Merion police joined forces this week to round up as many spare decks of playing cards as they could lay their hands on. . . .

It is not a reform wave or an attempt to corner what cards might be used as gambling paraphernalia.

It is part of a Nation-wide campaign to relieve the shortage of playing cards among marines, sailors and soldiers.

According to reports received by the Optimists Club of the Main Line it is so bad that soldiers are taking playing cards and cutting them in four parts to quadruple the number of decks.

The quota of decks given the Optimist Club to raise is 1,000 and they are already several hundred decks on their way toward the goal. They hope to reach the goal by February 2, the date when 800 decks of their quota will go off to the North African battlefield and the other 200 decks to naval hospitals.

It is easy to add your decks to the quota, explains members of the boys' work committee of the Club.

In either Lower Merion or Haverford they should be handed to the policeman on your beat. In addition in Haverford Township they may be left at the Township Building in Oakmont or in Lower Merion at the police station in Ardmore.

Women's Clubs Name Delegates To Civic Course

Class Will Train Women for Community Leadership

Delegates have been named by several Main Line women's clubs to attend the Institute training course offered by the Community Workshop Plan, sponsored by the Montgomery County Federation of Women's Clubs.

The plan was prepared by the Pennsylvania State College Extension Services, under the direction of Miss Rose Cologne, instructor, and Dr. Harold Alderfer, professor of political science, and is designed to prepare women for civic leadership both during the war and in the post-war reorganization period.

The Women's Club of Ardmore has named Mrs. William Leisman as delegate with Mrs. Fred C. Peters as alternate.

Mrs. C. Arley Farmer will represent the Women's Community Club of Narberth with Mrs. S. J. McCartney as alternate, while the Junior Women's Community Club of Narberth has named Mrs. S. Hulme Brown, Jr., as its delegate.

Mrs. George Sitterly will represent the Woman's Club of Bala-Cynwyd.

Other delegates named by Montgomery County clubs are Mrs. William E. Rollins, Woman's Club of Conshohocken; Mrs. John D. Norman, Women's Club of West Norriton; and Mrs. Carmela Capone, Junior Women's Club of Norriton.

The class will admit only 42 students, and each county club is permitted to fill one scholarship. By adoption of this plan, the Montgomery County Federation becomes the first women's group in the state to train community workers.

DAVID MALICKSON
Class of 1945 — Lower Merion High School

Mr. Frank Rinehart, business advisor for L. M.'s year book, the "Enchiridion," has announced that orders for the year book will be taken during the first two weeks in February. As in previous years two bindings of the book will be available. The padded, simulated leather edition will cost three dollars and a half, while the stiff cardboard covered edition can be purchased for two dollars and a half.

Orders for the year book will be taken by members of the business staff: Jim Hutton, Barbara Floyd, Jack Fuchs, Betty McCormick, Jane Gilhams, Pat Johnson, Harriet Nold, Betty Robertson, Bill Rice, Nancy Webster, Peggy Thompson, Tom Claffey and Jo Falconi.

Only ten percent of last year's total number of yearbooks published will be sold this year due to the shortage of vital material. Therefore all students are urged to place their orders as soon as possible.

On Wednesday, January 20, in "A" Assembly, the students of Lower Merion had the pleasure of hearing Lieutenant Starnes of the U. S. S. Boise tell many of the exciting incidents which took place while the Boise was engaged in the fight around Guadalcanal.

The Intramural Basketball League is still going strong with "Dartmouth," "Cornell," and "Pitt" way out in front. Betts, Bartlett and DeFelle hold the top honors for high scoring with 49, 48 and 44 points, respectively.

GIRL SCOUTS

SKATING PARTY

Undaunted by transportation difficulties, Girl Scouts of the 24 Main Line troops from Overbrook to Wayne will gather at the skating rink in Ardmore at Holland av. and County Line rd., January 29, for their fourth annual ice-skating party from 7 to 10 P. M.

The engaging of the rink is sponsored by the Main Line Troop Committee of the Girl Scouts. Mrs. Charles Strickler, from the committee, and Mrs. Thomas Kane, for the Leaders' Association, both of Merion, are in charge of the event.

A floor show has been arranged under the direction of Miss Eva Thompson. Buddy Vaughn, former Junior figure skating champion, who last year won third place in the national senior championship contest, will perform. Dawn Spencer, also, will display her ability as a figure skater. Giving a demonstration of various dances will be Dr. J. J. Kohlhass and Miss Elizabeth Driggs, both of Haverford. ## The Narberth Business Council

WEEKLY NEWS LETTER

TO YOU WHO LIVE AND BUY IN NARBERTH

Officers of the Narberth Business Council have received many queries both from local residents and merchants about the kinds of driving that are permissible under OPA regulations.

The nature of these queries indicate most people are anxious to avoid non-essential driving. They realize that vital gasoline supplies are needed to keep our war machinery in high gear.

Here is what OPA officials ruled about using automobiles to attend meetings.

In the absence of other adequate means of transportation, car owners may drive to meetings directly related to their jobs, but only if attendance is essential to, or part of, their occupation or profession. They may also drive to meetings conducted to train personnel for emergencies and make other preparations for emergencies that involve a threat to life, health or property.

Other types of meetings cannot be included as essential trips, even though they promote social welfare or civic good. Thus car owners may not drive to functions of various clubs and organizations, even though they perform useful service to the community and the war effort.

In the absence of other means of transportation, it is also permissible to drive to weddings, christenings and baptisms, as well as regular church services.

Along these broad lines it is not difficult for the average citizen to determine when he is engaged in essential driving. OPA officials are interested in exercising only what enforcement is necessary to yield our best, all-out war effort.

No citizen or merchant of Narberth should want less.

P. S.—An individual, a business council, a town grows, through constructive suggestions. You may have one that would point the way to a better future. If so, address it to the Narberth Business Council, Narberth, Pa. It will be confidentially treated and carefully considered.

Oysters Will Be Scarce For Duration Says Shea

He refers to oysters when he explains:

Speaking of his liquid stock Shea said that canned beer was another article that was out for the duration. So far, he indicated, bottled beer was holding up although the bottling works might be hit hard later by the shortage of manpower.

"As everyone knows," says Shea, "within the last three months difficulties have arisen in obtaining certain brands of hard liquor. These difficulties may increase as more and more war demands are made on the distilling industry."

Drastic gasoline rationing, Shea explained, has hit the tavern business much harder than any other establishments.

"Tavern proprietors, like other business men, are not complaining," he said. "They want to see this war won as quickly as possible and they are prepared to make any sacrifices to see that the job is well done."
